Mayor Pro Tem Davis congratulated Families United for Equity and apologized for not receiving a certificate from the City of Tracy at their ribbon cutting. Mayor Pro Tem Davis attended the ribbon cutting to support them. The organization provides children and adults with special needs navigational services and resources to assist them and their families. Dominique Mellion-Smothers, Tracy resident is Founder and Executive Director of the organization and wanted to let her know we do support what she is doing and look forward to her expanding in the City of Tracy soon.

Mayor Young stated she was invited to the ribbon cutting but it got removed from her calendar, there was a certificate, and she will make sure to get it to the organization.

Council Member Evans asked when the Pavement Management Plan and conversation about a vacancy ordinance will be coming back to Council which has been asked for over the past three years.

Ms. Schnaider responded the pavement question will come back as part of the March CIP discussions and there has also been a request from the Finance Committee to have it return to them first, so they are working on a February timeline and being ready for the March discussion for Council. The vacancy ordinance is in the Strategic Plan. A consultant has been hired to evaluate the ordinance and all the different possibilities that have to deal with vacant properties - some do it by tax, some by ordinance. That will be an accumulative package that will be brought to Council next year. Does not have an ETA but will pass on to the City Manager to get to Council.

Council Member Arriola stated even though he was not in attendance at the National League of Cities, he was appointed as 2nd Vice President of the LGBTQ Caucus for the National League and wished everyone a happy Thanksgiving.

Mayor Young wished everyone a happy Thanksgiving.
