6. DISCUSS ANNUAL REPORT TO CITY COUNCIL AND SELECT DATE TO PRESENT

Committee members discussed the annual report and comments followed.

The Committee discussed that they would brainstorm at the April Measure V meeting and decide then when the presentation will be taken to the City Council.

Finance Director Castro stated that the Investment Review Committee has merged with the Finance Committee, and that it will meet quarterly. She also mentioned that in the past the Measure V Committee Members have discussed interest allocation and wanted to inform the committee that this item will go before the Finance Committee at the March 10, 2025 meeting.

Community member Michel Bazinet spoke and stated that two keywords regarding the committee are transparency and accountability. And that the committee will want to provide information, such as how much has been spent, how much has been received, how much is anticipated to be received, the forecast, the expenditures, how much has been committed and how much remains to be committed, and so on to the community and to City Council
